BALLABROOIE,
HIGH GROUND,
BANGALORE.

DOC-149 G.P.13

17th Nov. 1918.

My dear Morgan,

With your kind submission I send herewith the enclosed letter to His Highness.

I am deeply grateful for the provision & for the most generous expression His Highness has been pleased to make of my services.

I greatly value His Highness' letter. It is as generous & written in such fine taste. It is a work of art.

Yours very sincerely
M. Visvesvaraya

My dear Sir V,

I am very sorry to hear that you are feeling the strain of office to such an extent as to necessitate your applying for six months leave. There is no doubt that you require a rest after 9 years of unremitting & strenuous work & I shall raise no objection to your taking leave for 6 months on the usual terms. I appreciate deeply the offer which you make to return to duty temporarily during the period of your leave in view to my meeting your help
